City of SACRAMENTO

PARTICIPATORY BUDGETING PILOT THEORY OF CHANGE

	RESIDENT ENGAGEMENT WITH GOVERNMENT	GOVERNMENT KNOWLEDGE OF RESIDENTS	ADVANCEMENT OF EQUITY
SHORT TERM	Participants gain knowledge of budgeting process	Council members learn about residents' priorities and concerns	Projects benefit historically underinvested communities
LONG TERM	Residents' trust in government increases Residents feel confident in their ability to participate in future processes Voter and civic participation increases	City Council passes policies that more effectively address resident needs	Communities are strengthened and better served through government process

THIRDPLATEAU