Statement:
Hello, my name is Kevin Rooney. I am running for Sacramento City Council, District 6. I'm a fifth generation Sacramentan on both sides of my family. On my father's side 1848, on my mother's side 1846, then known as New Helvetia. Homelessness and improving public safety are among my top priorities as your City Council representative. If elected, I will prioritize public safety by working diligently with law enforcement agencies to address crime and improve neighborhood security. As a small business owner, the challenge of working on difficult issues excites me. Education is the foundation of a flourishing community. I will advocate for expanded educational opportunities for all residents, including access to quality schools, after school programs and vocational training. Lastly, I am passionate about civic engagement and ensuring that everyone's voices are heard. I will actively engage with residents, listen to their concerns and work toward finding solutions that benefit our community as a whole. I am committed to serving District 6 with honesty, integrity and a fresh perspective. Work with me. I am confident we can build a stronger, cleaner and safer community.
