Candidate Statement:

I am running for City Council because District 5 deserves a representative who listens, shows up, and works alongside the community every day. I have lived and worked in South Sacramento for over 30 years, and I know the strength, resilience, and pride that define our neighborhoods. I also understand the challenges families face, from safety concerns to rising housing costs to the struggle to access basic city services.

For more than 25 years, I have served the public in roles focused on helping people. At Covered California, the California Student Aid Commission, the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office, and the Department of Industrial Relations, I have guided thousands of residents through complex state programs, analyzed data to improve services, and worked to ensure people receive fair and timely support. I am fluent in English and Spanish and have spent my career helping diverse communities navigate government systems with dignity and respect. As your councilmember, I will focus on cleaner and safer neighborhoods, more responsive city services, and stronger support for working families, seniors, and youth. I will work every day to make District 5 a place where every resident feels seen and supported.
