Candidate Statement:

Serving the people of Natomas, Northgate, and Gardenland has been a true privilege. I am running for re-election to continue putting people first, delivering results, and ensuring City Hall works for everyone.

I am committed to strengthening Sacramento's core services, including public safety, parks, and economic development, while ensuring your tax dollars are used responsibly.

At City Hall, I've fought for accountability and transparency, making sure public funds are spent effectively, from homelessness to infrastructure investments like levee improvements and facilities that serve our youth. Your tax dollars should work for you, and you should see the results in safer streets, cleaner neighborhoods, and reliable services.

I'm the daughter of immigrant parents, a first-generation college graduate and former small business owner. I know firsthand that, when government listens and invests wisely, it can change lives. That belief guides my work and commitment to working families, small businesses, and our communities.

I have worked in public service as a high school counselor and at City Hall for nearly ten years, first for former Councilmember Ashby and now as your Councilwoman. I'm grateful to serve you and would be honored to have your vote for a second term. www.karinaforsacramento.com
