

YOUR RIGHTS UPON TERMINATION OF SCERS COVERED EMPLOYMENT AND ENTRY INTO EMPLOYMENT COVERED BY PERS AND CERTAIN OTHER PUBLIC RETIREMENT SYSTEMS

A. MEMBERS WHO ACCEPT EMPLOYMENT COVERED BY A RETIREMENT SYSTEM HAVING A RECIPROCAL AGREEMENT WITH PERS

1. As a member of the Sacramento City Employees' Retirement System, accepting employment covered by PERS or one of the reciprocal retirement systems listed below, you will have certain rights if:
 - a. You enter employment in which you become a member of PERS or a reciprocal retirement system within 6 months after separating from service which is subject to the Sacramento City Employees' Retirement System, and
 - b. You elect to leave your contributions on deposit with SCERS and inform SCERS of the name of the public agency in which you will be or are employed.

At the present time the following are PERS reciprocal systems:

- 1937 Act County System: (Inclusive of Districts affiliated with each County Retirement System)

Alameda	Los Angeles	Sacramento	Santa Barbara
Contra Costa	Marin	San Bernardino	Sonoma
Fresno	Mendocino	San Diego	Stanislaus
Imperial	Merced	San Joaquin	Tulare
Kern	Orange	San Mateo	Ventura

- The University of California

- Other California Public Agencies - Cities of Concord, Costa Mesa, Oakland and San Clemente; the Southern California Rapid Transit District, Sacramento Municipal Utilities District

2. The rights of such membership if continued are:
 - a. A rate of contribution to the public agency retirement system based on your age at entry into membership in SCERS or another reciprocal retirement system.
 - b. Continuation of the basic death benefit and the right to disability retirement.
 - c. Your service under all reciprocal systems will be added together to determine eligibility for benefits under the several systems.
 - d. The final compensation used to determine your benefits under SCERS will be the highest earned under the two systems provided you retire concurrently under both systems.
3. Contributions you have elected to leave on deposit in SCERS may not be withdrawn while you remain in employment covered by PERS or one of the reciprocal systems.

B. MEMBERS WHO ACCEPT EMPLOYMENT COVERED BY THE STATE TEACHERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM, LEGISLATORS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM, OR JUDGES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM

1. As a member of the Sacramento City Employees' Retirement System, accepting employment covered by the State Teachers' Retirement System, Legislators' Retirement System, or Judges' Retirement System, you will have certain rights if you elect to leave your contributions on deposit with SCERS and inform SCERS of the name of the other retirement system.
2. The rights of such membership if continued are:
 - a. You may leave your contributions on deposit in SCERS even though you have less than five years of service credit with SCERS.
 - b. The final compensation used to determine your benefits under SCERS will be the highest earned under the two systems provided you retire concurrently under both systems.
3. Contributions you have elected to leave on deposit in SCERS may not be withdrawn while you remain in employment covered by one of these retirement systems.
