Creating Healthier Communities (formerly Community Health Charities) is a catalyst for good health, bringing communities, nonprofits, and business together around a shared commitment to better health and wellbeing. We represent thousands of high-impact nonprofits nationwide, working to address barriers to good health, and we connect them with capital from our corporate, foundation, and government partners to power transformative change. By listening to partners and convening community and business leaders, we ensure that we always act in the best interests of the communities, directing resources and expertise where it is needed most.

The Crocker Art Museum is dedicated to promoting an awareness of and enthusiasm for human experience through art. To fulfill this mission, the Museum collects, preserves, exhibits, and interprets outstanding works of art that are the product of human ingenuity and creativity. Founded in 1885, the Crocker Art Museum was the first art museum in the American West with core collections assembled by Margaret and Edwin Crocker, and is the primary visual arts museum for the 2.3 million residents of and 25 million annual visitors to the greater Sacramento metropolitan area.

Today, the Museum serves 270,000 visitors annually as the only American Alliance of Museums (AAM)-accredited art museum in the region.

One gift supports diverse organizations conserving and restoring our beautiful California environment, building healthy communities, and providing a sustainable future for our planet.

In the world’s toughest places, Engineers Without Borders USA (EWB-USA) is partnering with communities to meet their basic human needs. We’re building footbridges to provide pathways to opportunities. We’re installing solar panels to bring light where it is dark. We’re digging for water so hope can spring from the ground. Each project builds the foundation for a community to thrive for years to come. EWB-USA builds a better world through engineering projects that empower communities to meet their basic human needs and equip leaders to solve the world’s most pressing challenges. EWB-USA’s vision is a world in which every community has the capacity to sustainably meet their basic human needs.

THE FIRST TEE OF GREATER SACRAMENTO (CHSAYG)

Formerly known as SAY Golf (Sacramento Area Youth Golf Association)
First Tee – Greater Sacramento is a youth development organization that enables kids to build the strength of character that empowers them through a lifetime of new challenges. By seamlessly integrating the game of golf with a life skills curriculum, we create active learning experiences that build inner strength, self-confidence, and resilience that kids can carry to everything they do. First Tee – Greater Sacramento is impacting over 58,000 young people each year ages 3-18 and programs for individuals with disabilities that don’t age out. We have delivered programs at 9 area courses and have partnered with 88 elementary schools including 59 Title 1 schools.

Your donations will positively impact the lives of young people and will be used to teach the youth of Sacramento the basic core values of honesty, integrity, and respect, and support our program as we help guide kids to strengthen what’s inside.

Friends of Camp Sacramento (FOCS) is a volunteer organization formed in 1977 for the purpose of supporting the operation and development of Camp Sacramento, a beloved family camp that has operated in the Sierra Nevada Mountains by the City of Sacramento for over 100 years. As a 501(c) nonprofit organization since 2011, Friends of Camp Sacramento strengthens families, builds community, and connects people to nature through family and youth camping experiences. Camp Sacramento provides supervised recreation programs, friendly and entertaining staff, lots of quality leisure time, a beautiful setting, great food, and a terrific outdoor recreation experience for campers of all ages. FOCS makes Camp Sacramento an even better place by raising funds and contributing volunteer labor to open and close camp, repair cabins, purchase equipment, beautify the grounds, upgrade furnishings, and provide education materials. FOCS also provides camp scholarships to families, hosts a welcoming event for camp guests, and advises (as requested) the camp management regarding the operations, policies, procedures, and development of Camp Sacramento.
