

Quik-Clot for Patrol Use

- I. Quik-Clot
  - a. What is it:
    - A brand of hemostatic wound dressing that contains an agent to promote clotting to assist with bleeding control
  - b. When it is used:
    - For use as a topical dressing for local management of wounds such as cuts, lacerations, abrasions or open wounds
  - c. How to store it:
    - The product needs to be kept dry and out of direct sunlight or direct contact with heat sources. Storage temperature should be kept at 77 degrees or less
  - d. Drawbacks
    - It has a shelf life of 5 years and efficacy can diminish if in contact with heat or direct sunlight
- II. Quik-Clot Application
  - a. Hands on training with product
  - b. Practice applying to various injury types