ARRIVAL AND NOTIFICATION:

2231 hours. I arrived on the scene. The scene was secured by police barricade tape, completely closing off 22ND Avenue in front of 3650 22ND Avenue. I made contact with Sgt. R. Lake stated officers D. Jackson, #372 and L. Casey, #712 had fired shots at Mr. Roots when he pointed a handgun at Officer Casey. Sgt. Lake stated Officer Casey had knocked on the front door, then retreated to an area of cover at the corner of the house near the front door. When Mr. Roots opened the front door, he was armed with a handgun and he pointed the gun at Officer Casey and was shot.

Sgt. Lake further related that Officer Jackson was positioned behind a pickup truck parked at the curb in front of 3650 22ND Avenue. Officer Jackson was behind the right front fender in a position of cover.

When Officers Jackson and Casey returned to the scene I had them and the two officers who were covering the back of the residence respond to the Hall of Justice.

At 0126 hours, I departed the scene and responded to the Hall of Justice.

While at the Hall of Justice, Officer Wohlgemuth advised me he had a .22 caliber rifle in the trunk of his patrol vehicle that was taken from the front room of 3650 22ND Avenue. I told him that I would photograph this weapon prior to booking it as evidence. Officer Wohlgemuth and I then went to his patrol vehicle and I took photos of the rifle, prior to it being booked as evidence.

There was a light bulb in the center of the ceiling above the porch.

I then entered the residence with the others observing two light switches. just inside the front door west of the door. I turned the one that was in the off position on and the porch light went on. 0110 hours, 11-21-92, I contacted Officer Lance Casey, Sacramento Police Department, Badge 712, regarding his observation and activities at 3650 22nd. Ave. on 11-20-92. Officer Casey was accompanied in the interview room with a Sacramento Police Officer Association attorney, David Mastagni. Officer Casey was dressed in a Sacramento Police Department Uniform.

21st. Ave. and Martin Luther King across from Oakridge School. We met there to discuss the situation about going to 3650 22nd. Ave. in order to arrest Orlando ROOTS. We knew ROOTS was armed with a weapon. We knew he was high on something. He was reported to be acting crazy and strange the last couple of days.

We parked our cars several houses to the east of the suspect residence. We then walked the rest of the way. Officers Davis and Wohlgemuth went down the driveway on the east side of the house to the rear. There is a detached garage to the rear and south of the house. I waited near the corner and heard Officer Davis tell me the suspect vehicle is in the back. I felt at that time that the suspect ROOTS was in the house. I observed Officer Jackson to walk to the front of a red pick-up truck which was parked in front of the house in the street. She had a clear view of the front door area.

Officer CASEY told me that he then walked to the front door of the house. He is not sure if there were any outside lights on but there was a light on in the living room. He heard talking and knew someone was inside. The front door was located on a small porch elevated from the front sidewalk.

CASEY states he knocked at the front door several times. He then stepped backwards and around the corner of the building and got into a crouched position. He states he thinks he was four to five feet from the front door and was standing on something that he thought was two to three feet off the ground. CASEY states he had his flashlight in his left hand and his gun in his right hand.

STATEMENT OF:

JACKSON, Officer Debra
Badge 372

0202 hours, 11-21-92, I contacted Officer Debra JACKSON, Sacramento Police Department, Badge 372, regarding her observations and activities at 3650 22nd. Ave. on 11-20-92. Officer JACKSON was accompanied in the interview room with a Sacramento Police Officer Association attorney, David Mastagni. Officer JACKSON was dressed in a Sacramento Police Department Uniform.

The following is a synopsis of the interview with JACKSON which was both audio and video recorded.

Officer JACKSON states she was on duty and working as a police officer with the Sacramento Police Department the evening of November 20, 1992.

Officer JACKSON states in the evening of November 20, 1992, she had occasion to meet a downtown unit who advised her of the shooting event in the downtown area in which the suspect lived on 22nd. Ave. JACKSON states that the Officer told her that the suspect is an Orlando Roots who is armed and had shot at the victim with a 9mm. She states there is a second person with the suspect who may also be armed but he is not involved in the 245. JACKSON states that she was aware that the suspect had fired his gun at the victim the day before also. The victim did not report that shooting to the police.

Officer JACKSON states that she was told that the suspect may be on drugs and is vicious.

Officer JACKSON states she and Officer CASEY were dispatched to 3650 22nd. Ave. regarding an attempt pick-up of Orlando Roots wanted for the 245 in the downtown area. We were advised that Roots was driving a black ElCamino with the license number given. They drove by the suspect residence but did not see the suspect vehicle. getting ready to clear when one of the downtown units advised her that the suspect sometimes parks his car at the rear and out of sight.

JACKSON states that she and Officer Casey then met with Officers Don Davis and Gary Wohlgeomuth where they discussed the situation of going to the house on 22nd. Ave. in order to arrest Orlando Roots. She states after discussing the situation they drove to and parked several houses to the east of 3650 22nd. Ave. They then proceeded on foot.

Officer JACKSON states the four of them walked to the residence with Officers Don Davis and Wohlgeomuth walking down the side of the house on the east side towards the rear. She states Officer Casey went to the front of the house. She states there was no prior discussion between her and Officer Casey on who would go the front of the house or the position each would take in front of the house. Officer Casey was in front of her and he just went to the front of the house. She decided to walk to and take cover behind a red pick-up that was parked in front of the house, however it was not directly inline with the front door so she was looking at a slight angle with the front of the house. The pick-up is parked on 22nd. Ave., on the south side of the street in a westerly direction.

Officer JACKSON states that Officer Davis advised that the suspect vehicle is at the rear of the residence subsequently it was in her mind that the S. (Orlando Roots) was in the house.

JACKSON states she can see the front door of the residence. She states she got on the radio to see if there was a phone to the residence and if there was, to place a telephone call there.

JACKSON states she then observed Officer Casey to knock at the front door with either his flashlight or baton. She also heard him yell "police."

Officer Davis had previously advised me that he is assigned to the K-9 detail where he works as a K-9 Officer and was working in that capacity on 11-20-92.

The following is a synopsis of the interview with Officer Davis which was both audio and video recorded.

Officer Davis states in the evening of 11-20-92, he was personally advised by another K-9 Officer about the shooting downtown, the suspect, the suspect vehicle as well as the suspect's address at 3650 22nd. Ave.

Officer Davis states he believes he next heard a male voice from the front of the house say something, like "he's got it", "gun", "drop it", and then gunfire. The voice was from outside the house.

Officer Davis states he and Officer Wohlgemuth then went running to the front of the house. When he reached the front porch area, he observed the suspect still standing but in the process of starting to fall. The police dog went for him and the two of them took the suspect down which subsequently ended up in the living room floor. Officer Davis states the police dog bit the suspect on several places of the body. Officer Davis states he handcuffed the suspect at this time. He was aware of the injuries received by the suspect and was concerned about the other people in the house. He did not see a gun at this time.

Officer Davis states the house was subsequently secured with a female hispanic and a male black being found in the living room. They were eventually removed from the house and placed into police vehicles. Officer Davis states neither of the individuals made any statements or comments about the shooting.

Officer Davis states his police dog bit the female hispanic in the lower leg during the time Officers were securing the house. The dog bite was an accident and he did not direct the dog to bite the female. It was reactionary on the part of the dog due to the excitement at the moment. The dog bite was minor.

Officer Davis states after the medical people arrived at the scene they made him aware of a shoulder holster on the suspect. It was then removed at the same time they removed the clothes of the suspect.

Wohlgemuth states he believes he next heard a male voice from the front of the house say "gun". Then he heard gunfire from the front of the house. He thought there were at least five shots.

Wohlgemuth states he never heard anyone running in the house so he and Officer Davis went running to the front of the house. Wohlgemuth states he observed a FHA standing in the doorway inside the house which was directly across the living room from the front door. He also observed a MBA laying on the couch in the living room. There was also a 22 rifle on the floor next to the couch pointed to the west.

Officer Wohlgemuth states he observed Officer Davis trying to move the left hand of the suspect out from underneath him. The suspect was moving around. We were unaware of the extent of his injuries. He was talking or gasping at the time. He is not quite sure. His right hand was clear and contained no weapon. Finally Officer Davis got the left hand out and handcuffed the suspect in a prone position. There was no gun in the left hand.

ANTHONY, Robert (Dr.)

AUTOPSY

0915 hours, 11-21-92, I contacted Dr. Robert Anthony, Sacramento County Pathologist, at the Sacramento County Coroners Office regarding the death of an Orlando Roots.

I observed a MBA on a table inside the coroners office lying on his back with a tag tied to his left toe that had the name of Orlando Roots. I observed Roots to have a tattoo on the left side of the chest between the left nipple and the center of the chest. The tatoo read "MI VIDAS over [REDACTED]". I briefly examined both arms and hands and did not notice any sign of IV usage.

Dr. Anthony pointed out to me several marks over the upper arm and armpit area that are consistent with a bullet grazing the skin. The marks grazed the skin and penetrated the flesh. The marks pass from a lower area on the arm across the armpit and then grazing the chest side of the armpit and appearing to travel upwards and exiting. There were four separate grazings of the skin in this path.

I also observed what appeared to be a bullet hole approximately two to three inches above the left nipple.

Dr. Anthony told me the above mentioned hole is a bullet entry hole measuring approximately five sixteenths of an inch and is thirteen and one-half inches from the top of the head. It is three and one-half inches from the left of center.

Dr. Anthony then turned the body over onto its left side and pointed to a hole in the back that he stated is the exit hole. It is seventeen inches from the top of the head and one inch to the left of the middle

Dr. Robert Anthony stated that there were no bullets within the body.

I observed several lacerations and abrasions on the forehead and the arms of the deceased which were apparently made by the police dog.

Dr. Anthony subsequently made a Y incision and opened up the chest cavity. He then examined the upper organ area telling me that the cause of death was from the bullet wound passing through the left lung with a possible fragment or the force ripping a hole in the aorta as well and then passing out of the body.

Dr. Anthony indicates in his report that Roots weighed 152 pounds and was 66 inches tall.

Photographs of Roots prior to the autopsy were taken by CSI Officer. Dr. Anthony took photographs of the deceased as well.

Toxicology reports will be available at a later date.

[REDACTED] told me that on 11/20/92 in the evening hours, she is not sure of what the exact time was, however, she was at her apartment complex when she walked from her apartment to apartment [REDACTED] to meet several other females. En route to apartment [REDACTED] she passed a male Black known to her only as "Woody" in the hallway walking towards the back. He was with another individual from her apartment complex named [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and some others she cannot remember, but they all live or hang around her apartments. "Woody" waved to her and she waived back. There were no conversations other than, "Hi."

[REDACTED] states she and "Woody" are friends and she only sees him around when he shows up to visit some of the guys in her apartment complex. They only had a friendship type relationship with each other. She has only known Woody for a short period of time, and met him at her apartment complex.

[REDACTED] then leaves the apartment complex and meets "Woody" who is parked in front of the apartment complex in a red pickup.

(The same pickup that is parked in front of Woody's house now.)

Woody is alone in the pickup. She gets in and he indicates that he wants to talk to her at his house, and subsequently drives to his house. [REDACTED] states that she has been to Woody's house on one prior occasion.

Again, it should be noted that they only have a friendship relationship and nothing else. He feels confident in confiding in her.

[REDACTED] states they drove directly to Woody's house, but she could not describe the route.

[REDACTED] states she got the impression that "Woody" had been drinking, based upon his actions in driving and his slurring of speech while talking. He was clumsy and the speech was thick. She states he mentioned that he pulled a gun on a person. He also indicated that he must have shot someone, but when she questioned him about it, he said, "No, I did not shoot anyone." She asked "Woody" another question about shooting someone, and got an answer like, "Forget it. I didn't do anything." [REDACTED] didn't think much more about it at that time.

[REDACTED] states they arrived at "Woody's" house, parking the pickup in front of his house. It is at the same location in front of the house now.

[REDACTED] states that they went into the house. She does not recall any lights being on at the house when they entered.

[REDACTED] states after entering the house, "Woody" turned on the inside lights. [REDACTED] states that she got situated in the house sitting in a chair that would be in the southeast corner of the living room. This chair would be in view of the living room door if the living room door was opened all the way. It was in a corner between the door to the hallway and a door that leads into the kitchen.

The kitchen being in the northeast corner of the residence.

[REDACTED] stated that after listening to "Woody" talk for a few minutes, she decided she wanted to leave. She states "Woody" appeared to be intoxicated and was not making much sense. She was starting to get nervous being around him.

[REDACTED] states when they entered the residence, that there was a male Black named [REDACTED] who is "Woody's" roommate, asleep on the couch in the living room. The couch is located in the living room against the wall closest to the street. The couch is parallel with that wall. The male Black named [REDACTED] was sleeping on the couch with his head at the doorway at the end of the couch with his feet extending away from the door. He was lying on the couch looking to the west with the back of his head to the door.

[REDACTED] again states that after sitting in the swivel type chair, she decided she wanted to leave and obtained the telephone. "Woody", at this time, was seated on the floor on the west side of the doorway that leads into the bedrooms. [REDACTED] states that she did not really understand what he was saying. His conversation was just rambling. While he talked, she got on the telephone and was attempting to locate someone to come pick her up and take her home.

[REDACTED] states after approximately ten minutes after arriving there, she heard several knocks at the front door. The living room lights were on. "Woody" was seated on the floor in the opposite side of the doorway. "Woody" yelled from his sitting position, "Who is it?" She did not hear a response, but she was on the telephone at the time. Her head was pointed toward the west living room wall, or slightly farther to the south at the door jam that leads into the hallway.

(NOTE: [REDACTED] has a loud voice.)

[REDACTED] recalls "Woody" getting up and walking towards the front door with him again saying, "Who is it?"

Again, [REDACTED] states she didn't hear any response, however, she is still on the telephone. She knows "Woody" opens the door, but she did not see him open it or anything else.

[REDACTED] states that she then hears shots and feels something hitting her feet. [REDACTED] states then the police entered the living room and grabbed "Woody" and handcuffed him. She recalls a police dog being in the living room biting "Woody" and herself.

[REDACTED] states she did not see "Woody" with a gun or a holster during the time she was with him that evening. She states he was wearing a short coat of some kind.

VICTIM:

STATEMENT OF:

[REDACTED]

0001 hours., 11-21-92, I contacted [REDACTED] in interview room #5 of the Sacramento Police Department, Homicide Detail.

[REDACTED] states she was not present at 3650 22nd Ave. when the Officers were involved in the shooting with Orlando ROOTS. She did not know anything about the shooting until she drove down 22nd Ave. and was stopped by the police.

[REDACTED] states she is a former girl friend of ROOTS, however they broke up two weeks ago and she has not talked to him since. She states she was only driving on the street (22nd Ave.) to see if he was outside hoping that he would stop her and talk with her.

[REDACTED] states that ROOTS never got angry at her or hit her. She states that he had quite an imagination and would think of a lot of bizarre things that were not real.

She states Roots drinks some but not a lot. She says he smokes "crank" and gets spaced out on it. The "crank" is his downfall.

[REDACTED] states she has seen ROOTS with a silver handgun in the past and knows it to hold seven bullets. She does not know where he kept it. She has not seen him with a holster.

[REDACTED] states ROOTS lives at the 22nd Ave. house with [REDACTED] an older MBA.

0010 hours, the interview with [REDACTED] ended. [REDACTED] was escorted from the interview room to the outside waiting area. [REDACTED] then stated to me that she has seen ROOTS get angry inside the house or at people and would shoot his gun off inside the house. No one was threatened by the shooting.

The interview with [REDACTED] was both audio and video recorded.

STATEMENT OF WITNESS:

[REDACTED]

11/21/92 at 0115 hours. R/O interviewed [REDACTED] at the Hall of Justice, Homicide/Assaults. The following is a synopsis of an audio/video taped interview between [REDACTED] and R/O. [REDACTED] was advised of his Miranda Rights per SPD form 133. [REDACTED] waived his Rights and made the following statement.

[REDACTED] states that earlier in the evening on 11/20/92, that he and Orlanda Roots went to an address on Capitol Avenue to visit a female known to [REDACTED] as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] advised that prior to leaving their residence on 22ND Avenue, Roots put on a shoulder holster and covered the holster with a black jacket. Roots states that although he did not see the 9mm in which Roots normally carries, he believed that the holster contained the 9mm. [REDACTED] states that after arriving at [REDACTED] apartment, that he and Roots went up to visit [REDACTED]. Roots left [REDACTED] apartment and walked down and got into a verbal argument with a subject known to [REDACTED] by first name only of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] then leaves [REDACTED] apartment and goes to the lobby area where Roots and [REDACTED] are arguing. [REDACTED] convinces Roots to get in their vehicle and leave. [REDACTED] and Roots then walk out of the apartment and get into their 84 Chevy Chevelle, black in color.

[REDACTED] states at this time an unknown subject, not [REDACTED] exited the apartment and came up to the car in which [REDACTED] and Roots were seated in. Roots immediately got out of the driver's side and got into an argument with this unknown subject. [REDACTED] observed Roots chase this unknown subject down the alley, out of sight from [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] then heard two shots. [REDACTED] assumed that it was Roots who did the shooting, since he had been armed with a 9mm.

Roots returns to the car and both he and [REDACTED] leave, back en route to the 22ND Avenue address. [REDACTED] states that he does not know what time that they arrived back at the 22ND Avenue address; however, it was dark. [REDACTED] states that shortly after arriving at the 22ND Avenue address, Roots left en route to pick up [REDACTED]. Roots and [REDACTED] had a prearranged location where he was to pick up [REDACTED]. Roots used [REDACTED] Chevy pickup, because of what had occurred on Capitol Avenue earlier.

Roots and [REDACTED] returned to the 22ND Avenue address. [REDACTED] states that Roots and [REDACTED] were only back in the house for approximately fifteen minutes when [REDACTED] heard a knock at the door. [REDACTED] states that he heard someone talking outside but what was said he could not distinguish. [REDACTED] described the voice as mumbling. [REDACTED] states that Orlanda, after the knock at the door, immediately got up and opened the door and stepped out into the alcove area. [REDACTED] states that Orlanda was out of his sight when [REDACTED] heard two pops. [REDACTED] then turned and observed Orlanda falling back into the house. [REDACTED] states that he did not see Orlanda with a gun; however, [REDACTED] assumed that Orlanda had the 9mm in his shoulder holster. [REDACTED] states that when Orlanda answered the door, that he was wearing the jacket that was used to cover up the 9mm earlier during the confrontation on Capitol Avenue.

[REDACTED] states that after Orlanda fell back into the house, that he heard voices yelling for everyone in the house to freeze. [REDACTED] states that the next thing he knew that there was a dog at the door.

R/O questioned [REDACTED] as to the confrontation on Capitol Avenue. [REDACTED] states that after Orlanda had chased the unknown male down the alley, that [REDACTED] walked out of the apartment complex and up to the car in which [REDACTED] was seated in. [REDACTED] states that he did not have a gun in his possession when talking to [REDACTED] and did not brandish any gun.

[REDACTED] states that Orlanda has been carrying the 9mm in the shoulder holster for the last four days. R/O questioned [REDACTED] as to a .22 rifle that was found on the couch inside the 22ND Avenue address. [REDACTED] states that Orlando has fired the rifle several times in the house. [REDACTED] further states that the neighbors could tell R/O as to their hearing shots from within his house.

RESULTS AND CONCLUSIONS

Item 03-#1 is one Sig Sauer brand, model P 226, 9 MM caliber pistol, serial number [REDACTED]. It operated normally in tests. The safeties are operational. Single action trigger pull is 3-3/4 to 4 pounds and double action trigger pull is 12 pounds. The magazine and ammunition was not submitted with the gun. A separately submitted magazine has a 15 round capacity. General rifling characteristics exhibited on test-fires are six land and groove impressions, right twist, with land impression widths of 0.059 to 0.060 inches and groove impression widths of 0.119 to 0.120 inches.

Item 03-#2 is one Sig Sauer brand, model P 226, 9 MM caliber pistol, serial number [REDACTED]. It operated normally in tests. The safeties are operational. Single action trigger pull is 3-1/2 pounds and double action trigger pull is 11 to 12 pounds. The magazine and ammunition was not submitted with the gun. A separately submitted magazine has a 15 round capacity. General rifling characteristics exhibited on test-fires are six land and groove impressions, right twist, with land impression widths of 0.059 to 0.064 inches and groove impression widths of 0.117 to 0.120 inches.

Item 03-#3 (SPD PR 112966 #3) is part of a lead core of a hollow point, jacketed bullet, and it weighs 78.6 grains. Chemical tests are negative for blood. Rifling is not present on the lead core. It is not suitable for comparison purposes.

Item 03-#4 (SPD PR 112966 #13) is a spent, copper jacketed, hollow point bullet of a nominal 9 MM caliber, weighing 142.4 grains. Layers of paint and wallboard are adhered to the bullet. A swab of the bullet tested presumptive positive for blood. A trace amount of tissue is present on the bullet. This bullet probably passed through tissue and blood.

The bullet, Item 03-#4, is identified to have been fired from the gun, Item 03-#1, in microscopic comparisons. The bullet, Item 03-#4 has general rifling characteristics of six land and groove impressions, right twist, with land impression widths of 0.059 to 0.060 inches and groove impression widths of 0.118 to 0.120 inches.

Item 03-#5 (SPD PR 112966 #17) is part of a lead core of a hollow point jacketed bullet, and weighs 58.6 grains. Chemical tests are negative for blood. There is no rifling present on the lead core. It is not suitable for comparisons purposes.

Item 03-#6 (SPD PR 112966 #18) is a spent and damaged copper jacket of a nominal 9 MM, hollow point bullet. It weighs 24.2 grains. It is the same design as the above copper jacketed items. Chemical tests are negative for blood. A conclusive determination could not be made on which gun it was fired from. However, the rifling impressions on this bullet are more like those produced by the gun, Item 03-#2, rather than the gun, Item 03-#1. It was likely fired from the gun, Item 03-#2.

General rifling characteristics are damaged on the bullet jacket, Item 03-#6, but exhibits six land and groove impressions, right twist, with a land impression width of approximately 0.060 inch and a groove impression width of approximately 0.113 to 0.114 inch.

Item 03-#7 (SPD PR 112966 #19) is a spent, copper jacketed, hollow point bullet of a nominal 9 MM caliber, weighing 148.3 grains. Wallboard material and different colored layers of paint adhere to the bullet and hollow point cavity. Chemical tests are negative for blood.

The bullet, Item 03-#7, is identified to have been fired from the gun, Item 03-#1, in microscopic comparisons. There is agreement of class characteristics and individual characteristics between test-fired bullets from the gun, Item 03-#1, and the spent bullet, Item 03-#7. General rifling characteristics exhibited on the spent bullet, Item 03-#7, are six land and groove impressions, right twist, with land impression widths of 0.059 to 0.060 inches and groove impression widths of 0.117 to 0.120 inches.

Re: Officer Involved Shooting
Case #92-100971
Officer Lance Casey #712
Officer Debra Jackson #372
Subject: Orlando Roots

Dear Chief Finney:

On November 20, 1992, this office was notified of the above-referenced officer-involved shooting. The Sacramento Police Department report concerning this matter is attached hereto along with an investigative report prepared by District Attorney Investigators Craig Tourte and David Hyde. Our review is directed at ascertaining whether this use of force was lawful.

Summary of Findings

This use of force was reasonable and legally justified.

Factual Basis

NOTE: Page references are to crime report 92-100971, keyed to page numbers placed on the center bottom of each page. There are one hundred thirty-two such pages.

On November 20, 1992, Officers Lance Casey and Debra Jackson of the Sacramento Police Department were dispatched to 3650 22nd Avenue to attempt to arrest Orlando Roots, who was wanted for a violation of Penal Code section 245(a)(2) that had occurred earlier that same day (page 54). Officer Jackson had learned of that incident from a meeting with other officers who told her that Roots had shot at the complaining witness, was believed to be armed, was a drug user, and was described as "vicious" (page 60). Officer Jackson was told that Roots lived on 22nd Avenue and that he might be in the company of another person also suspected to have been armed (id.). Officer Jackson gave this information to Officer Casey (page 54).

Officer Casey and Officer Jackson met with Officers Don Davis and Gary Wohlgemuth at 21st Avenue and Martin Luther King with the intention of proceeding to Roots' address to arrest him for his assault (id. - 55). Officer Casey went to the front door of Roots' address; Officer Jackson positioned herself near a truck parked in front of this house (id.). Officer Casey knocked on the front door several times (id.). Casey had his flashlight in his left hand and his gun in his right hand; he had drawn his weapon because he "was scared for his life having in mind that the suspect had a gun and fired it at another person on two prior occasions (id.). Officer Casey was four to five feet from the front door and was standing on something that he thought was two to three feet off the ground (id.). Officer Casey heard a male on the inside of the door say "who is it" following his knocking (on same id.). Officer Casey heard the front door being opened and stated "police" (page 56). Officer Casey took one to two steps forward from behind the wall to where he had a better view of the front door; at the same time he saw a black male (later identified as Orlando Roots) step out from the front door with a handgun in his hand (id.). Officer Casey yelled "gun;" he saw the subject raise the handgun and point it in Officer Casey's direction (id.); fearing that he was going to be shot by this subject, Officer Casey fired his weapon (id.). Casey stated that he was "very scared" and "did what he had to do to protect himself from being killed" (id.).

Officer Jackson had taken cover behind a red pickup truck located on the street at a slight angle to the suspect's house (page 61). She saw Officer Casey knock at the front door and heard him yell "police" (id.). Officer Jackson found the area where Officer Casey stood to be well illuminated (page 62). Officer Jackson saw the front door open and a male black adult in the doorway; she estimates that she was approximately 25 feet from this location (id.). Her view of this scene was unobstructed (id.). Officer Jackson saw this subject illuminated by Officer Casey's flashlight and could see a gun in the subject's hand. She saw the subject bring the gun towards Officer Casey and believed that Officer Casey was about to be shot (id.); she fired twice at the subject (id.).

Officer Gary Wohlgemuth had taken a position at the rear of the subject's house (page 65). He heard what he thought to be knocking near the front of the house followed by the word "police;" he believes he next heard a male voice from the front of the house say "gun" (id.). He heard gunfire from the front of the house, estimating that at least five shots were fired (id.). Officer Wohlgemuth ran to the front of the house where he saw Officer Casey (id.).

Chief Jerry Finney

Officer Don Davis was in this rear position with Officer Wohlgemuth (page 24). Officer Davis heard a male voice from the front of the house say something like "he's got it," "gun," "drop it" and then gunfire (id.). Officer Davis ran to the front area; he saw a subject still standing but in the process of starting to fall (id.). Crime scene investigators located a cocked 9mm pistol on the floor of the residence (page 104).

The subject, later identified as Orlando Roots sustained one through and through gunshot wound in the chest that caused his death (page 19-20). Officer Casey was found to have fired four shots (pages 56, 94). Officer Jackson fired twice (pages 62, 94).

Legal Issues

A peace officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a person to be arrested has committed a public offense may use reasonable force to effect the arrest, to prevent escape, or to overcome resistance. Penal Code section 835a. Homicide is justifiable when committed by public officers when necessarily committed in overcoming actual resistance to the discharge of legal duty or when necessarily committed in arresting persons charged with Penal Code section 196. Where a peace officer has probable cause to believe that a suspect poses a threat of serious physical harm, either to the officer or to others, that force can include deadly force to prevent an attack, halt an attack, make the arrest, or prevent escape, Tennessee v. Garner 471 U.S. 1, Penal 196. Actual danger is not required; it is legally sufficient that the person exercising deadly force is confronted by the appearance of danger which arouses in his mind as a reasonable person, an honest conviction and fear that he is about to suffer bodily injury, see, e.g. CALJIC 5.51.

Analysis of the Conduct

In assessing whether the use of deadly force is reasonable under the circumstances, the following issues must be addressed:

1. Did the person against whom force was used intend or reasonably appear to intend to commit an injury involving the potential of death or great bodily injury;
2. Did a weapon or means of causing great bodily injury or death exist or reasonably appear to exist;
3. Did that person constitute or reasonably appear to constitute an imminent danger, i.d., have or reasonably appear to have a viable delivery system for inflicting harm?

Chief Jerry Finney

Measured by this standard, the actions of both Officer Casey and Officer Jackson were proper. Officer Casey was lawfully performing an official duty when confronted by an armed subject who objectively appeared to intend to shoot him then and there. Officer Casey knew he was looking for an armed, assaultive subject described as a "vicious" drug user; his subjective analysis of the danger confronting him in the person of Roots entitled Officer Casey to rely on deadly force in self-defense. Officer Jackson's conduct is similarly justified. She acted in the defense of both Officer Casey and herself when confronted with the appearance of an imminent threat to both of them.

Conclusion

This use of force by each officer is legally justifiable and no further action will be taken by this office with regard to same.

I invite you to contact me at [REDACTED] if you have further questions in this regard.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: CASE SUMMARY - OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING
REPORT #92-100971

SUMMARY

On November 20, 1992 Officers Lance Casey, Debra Jackson, Don Davis and Gary Wohlgemuth received information on an armed suspect that resided at 3650 22nd Avenue. The suspect, Orlando Roots, MB29 had been involved in an attempted murder (92-100923) earlier in the evening where he fired several shots from a handgun at an acquaintance. With information furnished from Officer Gautier, who was handling the attempt murder report, Officers Casey, Jackson, Davis and Wohlgemuth responded to 3650 22nd Avenue to arrest Orlando Roots for attempt murder.

Officers Davis and Wohlgemuth took a position to the rear of the residence. Officer Jackson took a position behind a Pick-up truck parked in front of the residence. Officer Casey went to the front of the residence. All the Officers were in position at 2145 hours. Officer Casey went to the front door and knocked on the door. A male voice inside asked "who is it". Officer Casey then retreated to an area of concealment behind the corner of the house. Both Officers Casey and Jackson had their service weapons drawn. Officer Casey heard the front door open and he said "Police". Casey took one or two steps from behind the wall to get a better view of the front door. Casey then observes the suspect step out the front door with a handgun in his hand. Officer Casey yelled to alert the officers "Gun". Casey was in a crouched position with a flashlight in his left hand. The suspect raised the gun and pointed it at Casey. Officer Casey and the suspect were approximately four to five feet apart. Officer Casey, fearing for his life, fired four times. Two rounds struck the deceased. One round grazed the deceased and the other struck the deceased in the upper body causing the fatal wound.

Officer Jackson was positioned about twenty-five feet in front of the front porch behind a Pick-up truck. She had her weapon drawn pointed towards the front door. Officer Jackson observed Officer Casey knock on the door. Officer Jackson heard Officer Casey yell "Police". Officer Jackson observed the front door open and the suspect standing in the doorway. Officer Jackson saw the light from Officer Casey's flashlight shine on the suspect and saw the suspect molding a handgun in his hand. Jackson sees the suspect raise the gun toward Officer Casey and she thought the suspect was going to shoot Officer Casey. Officer Jackson fired two rounds at the suspect. Both rounds struck the exterior of the house.

Officers Davis and Wohlgemuth were at the back of the residence and only heard a male voice from the front of the house say something like "he's got it", "gun", "drop it", and then gunfire. Orlando Roots was taken to UCDMC where he expired.

Orlando Roots was armed with Helwen 9MM Semi-automatic pistol that contained a loaded bullet. The magazine contained no bullets. When recovered, the pistol was found in the cocked position.

Respectfully submitted,
