Author: 4452 - FREMGEN, PETER 1003

Subject: OFFICER FREMGEN #1003

Related date/time: Feb-28-2019 (Thu.) 921

On 2/28/19, at approx 0432 hours, I, Ofc Fremgen #1003, was dispatched to the area of [REDACTED] L St for a mental subject. Per the text of the call, the complainant had advised the neighbor was knocking on her door. The complainant advised the subject was [REDACTED] and that he was manic depressive and off his meds. Dispatch made phone contact with [REDACTED] and he cursed at the call taker and stated he was dealing with a higher authority. He told the dispatcher that he was knocking on the door to get a TV dinner re-heated. Per the text of the call, [REDACTED] lives at [REDACTED] with his 92 year old mother.

Body worn cameras captured portions of the investigation. I arrived on scene at approx 0446 hrs. Ofc Eckert #1001 and Ofc Davis #941 were already on scene prior to my arrival.

As I entered the house, I saw [REDACTED] standing in the living room. As I approached the doorway [REDACTED] exclaimed at me, "You look like a Nazi."

Ofc Eckert was attempting to converse with [REDACTED], however [REDACTED] would only speak brief sentences before having a blank stare. I learned that [REDACTED] was speaking with other voices in his head. During this period of blank stares, [REDACTED] would not respond to us verbally.

Ofc Eckert advised that he has been trying to talk with [REDACTED] for approx 30 min, and that they have not yet checked the welfare of his mother who was also home.

I attempted to speak with [REDACTED] and he was slightly confrontational. His arms were crossed, and he loudly told me that he wanted space, indicating for me to back up.

I backed up slightly, and attempted to speak with [REDACTED] to better understand what was going on. I had great difficulty in doing so, as he would respond briefly to one of my questions, and then would go back to a blank stare, and not respond at all.

At one point, [REDACTED] motioned toward Ofc Eckert, and stated he was reading his thoughts. [REDACTED] then turned and walked to the back of the living room toward Ofc Davis and aggressively stated, Excuse me sir I need to use the restroom. Out of my way, I need to use the restroom." [REDACTED]'s demeanor was mildly hostile. Ofc Davis blocked [REDACTED]'s access to the restroom, and I resumed attempting to speak with [REDACTED].

I inquired multiple times as to the whereabouts of [REDACTED]'s mother. [REDACTED] stated he still lived with her, but would not confirm where she was. From reading prior calls for service at this location (19-58137), I was aware that [REDACTED]'s mother was in her 90's, and officers had previously conducted welfare checks on her.

At this point, one of my concerns was for the welfare of [REDACTED]'s mother, and whether she was OK, and whether she would be safe under the care of [REDACTED]. Based on what I had seen so far, I believed that [REDACTED] was experiencing a mental health crisis. Based on his aggressive demeanor, and inability to effectively communicate with us, I grew concerned he could become violent.

As I looked around the room, I observed a boxed TV dinner lying on the coffee table. It was indicated that this was the TV dinner that [REDACTED] was asking the neighbor to heat up. I also observed exercise equipment including a weight bench and a barbell with weights on either end. I observed [REDACTED] to have a muscular build and suspected that he exercised frequently. Additionally, he appeared to be approx. 250 lbs.

I continued trying to speak with [REDACTED], but his demeanor remained aggressive, and he continued switching between speaking with officers and blankly staring and not responding.

At times, while speaking with [REDACTED], he would pause and tell officers that someone else was talking to him, when nobody else. At one point, he specifically said that his girlfriend was talking to him when there was nobody else in the room.

I attempted to get [REDACTED] to voluntarily come with officers for a mental health evaluation, but he refused.

I asked [REDACTED] if he ever wanted to hurt himself and he stated he has not. I asked him if he currently wanted to hurt himself, and he said no. He then spontaneously stated, "Do I want to hurt the three of you? Is that what you're asking?" I asked him if he wanted to hurt anybody else and he replied, "Not right now. Maybe in about 20 years for what you've done to me tonight. You're going to have to hurt yourself tonight."

When asked about this statement, [REDACTED] did not reply and had a blank stare.

Ofc Davis and Ofc Eckert informed me that [REDACTED] had mentioned earlier how he wanted us to go and hurt ourselves, however he had not said he was going to hurt us.

Ofc Davis checked on [REDACTED]'s mother who was in a back bedroom. When Ofc Davis walked into the back room, [REDACTED] became agitated, stating we deceived him. I re-iterated to [REDACTED] that we were here to help him.

[REDACTED] stood in the living room and began fidgeting with a ring he was wearing. Ofc Eckert mentioned that [REDACTED] should keep the ring on, and Okada stated, "This priest might have to leave the Catholic church tonight. Because my nuns are coming in now." When asked what the nuns do, [REDACTED] replied, "The nuns kill for the father. The nuns kill for me."

[REDACTED]'s talk of killing and death greatly concerned me, and I became concerned that [REDACTED] could be a danger to others. I continued to try and gain compliance from [REDACTED] and for him to go to the hospital, yet he refused again.

[REDACTED] began pulling on his ring again. Ofc Eckert advised [REDACTED], "don't take the nuns off." [REDACTED] stated, "When I take the ring off, that means I'm leaving the church and I'll kill." Ofc Eckert asked who he was going to kill, but [REDACTED] did not respond. I attempted to gain additional information from [REDACTED] about his statement about killing, and [REDACTED] only responded that there was a priest named Dave in the room with him. [REDACTED] did not further elaborate on his statement about killing.

At this point I believed [REDACTED] to be a danger to others based on my observations and his statement about killing, and I believed he met criteria to be detained and transported for a mental health evaluation.

[REDACTED] then sat down on the couch, and then lied down and covered himself up with a blanket. This presented an officer safety issue as [REDACTED]'s hands were now covered up, and I did not believe [REDACTED], nor the couch had been searched for weapons.

Ofc Davis, Ofc Eckert, and I began preparing to take [REDACTED] into custody. The blanket was removed, and the furniture was moved to make room to work.

Ofc Davis asked [REDACTED] to stand up and he refused. I attempted to assist [REDACTED] up by pulling on his arm and he continued to lie down. I explained to [REDACTED] that he was not in trouble and we were going to go see a doctor however [REDACTED] continued to passively resist.

█████ was gently rolled onto the carpet and we attempted to place his hands behind his back to place him in handcuffs. █████ pulled his arms up under his torso, with his fists near his face. I took █████'s left arm and Ofc Eckert took his right arm and we attempted to place █████'s arms behind his back. I re-iterated to █████ that he was not in trouble however █████ began to tense up and resist officers.

I tried again to pull his left arm behind him; however I could feel █████ attempting to bite my arm and hands. I released and instructed █████ to place his hand behind his back but he continued to resist. Ofc Eckert and I resumed attempting to place his hands behind his back by grabbing on to his wrist and forearm and directing them toward his back. █████ was extremely strong, and I had difficulty in attempting to get his arms back due to his strong resistance. I then heard an audible crack from the right side where Ofc Eckert was, and █████ began moaning indicating that █████ had sustained an injury to his right arm.

I observed that █████'s right arm appeared to be bending backwards near the elbow and forearm. █████'s elbow appeared to be swelling and bruising. Additionally, I observed several abrasions to █████'s wrists. The abrasions were red and partially resembled scratches caused by fingernails.

From my observations, Ofc Eckert was not twisting, torqueing, or otherwise maneuvering █████'s arm in a way in which it should have been expected to cause injury. Ofc Eckert appeared to have been simply pulling on █████'s arm when he suffered the unintended injury.

Fire was immediately requested code 3 to the scene, and an additional unit was requested. We attempted to reassure and render aid to █████ while waiting for fire. I checked the freezer for an ice pack, and located a bag of frozen vegetables. I placed this on █████'s arm which I observed had an obvious deformity in the forearm near the elbow. █████ exclaimed that he did not want our help and did not want the ice pack so I removed it from his arm.

Ofc Valenzuela #855 arrived on scene and contacted the original complainant on the call (see supplemental).

At this point, █████'s mother entered the room and I attempted to gain some more information about █████.

We stood by █████ until Sacramento Fire Engine 8 and Medic 8 arrived on scene. █████ ultimately voluntarily walked to the front yard and got on the

I spoke with [REDACTED]'s mother, [REDACTED]. She advised that her son has manic depression and has been under lots of stress lately. She advised he was normal today and had gone bowling earlier in the day. She advised he was normal at the time she went to bed. She also advised that [REDACTED] manages his own medication and is normally compliant with his medications. [REDACTED] L St: I contacted residents [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who advised nobody had knocked on their door that evening, however last week [REDACTED] was waving to [REDACTED] calling him Dave despite the fact that the resident was named [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] L St: I contacted resident [REDACTED] who advised nobody had knocked on his door that evening, however last week [REDACTED] came up to him while [REDACTED] was working in his garage and [REDACTED] challenged him to a fight.

[REDACTED] L St: I contacted resident [REDACTED] who advised that nobody had knocked on his door that evening; however he advised that [REDACTED] is up and down and occasionally has incidents. He advised last week [REDACTED] was social, but was acting strange.

I performed a records check and located three handguns registered to [REDACTED] a Colt .380, a North American .22, and a Smith and Wesson 10mm. Per AFS and RMS the Colt was seized on 3/31/18 (18-94648), the North American was transferred from [REDACTED] on 7/11/1995, and the Smith and Wesson was transferred from [REDACTED] on 12/2/1995.

In Summary:

On 02-28-2019 at approx. 0530 hrs. I, Ofc. Valenzuela #855 contacted witness [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] L St and obtained her statement. She stated the following in summary:

My body worn camera (BWC) was activated throughout the interview.

I've known [REDACTED] and his family for over 40 years. Last night he was knocking on our door since around 9pm. He was knocking on our door all night. At 9pm my husband answered. [REDACTED] was asking if he could heat up his frozen dinner in our microwave. My husband offered to take it in and heat it up for him but [REDACTED] didn't want that. My husband said he would take it in, read the instructions and take it to him to his house when it's ready but [REDACTED] said no that they were not for my husband to eat. [REDACTED] didn't like that idea so he took his frozen dinner back and left. He came back pounding on our front door at around 3:50am. I mean pounding hard but this time we didn't answer. He pounded again on it at around 4am and again when I was on the phone with 911. We didn't answer the door again those times.

On 02-28-19 at approx. 0411 hours, I, Ofc. Eckert #1001 and my partner (Ofc. Davis #941) were dispatched to [REDACTED] L St. in regards to a mental subject that lived at [REDACTED]. The call details stated, [REDACTED] was manic depressive and off his meds. Further call details informed officers that [REDACTED] was knocking on his neighbors door to to have them heat up a TV dinner. The neighbors were scared of [REDACTED] and would not answer the door for him, he told them that he was dealing with a higher power. We arrived on scene, activated our body worn cameras, and I observed the following in summary:

We arrived on scene and [REDACTED] walked out of his house and met us on the driveway. He was holding a microwave-able meal. He said we made him nervous and he began to stare at us. I asked [REDACTED] how I could help him. [REDACTED] informed police that he was the commanding authority and if we did not respect him it would mean death.

[REDACTED] tried to go back inside his residence which concerned me because I knew his elderly mother lived at the residence and maybe inside. Ofc. Davis went to contact the caller, so I began to speak further with [REDACTED] to build repour with him. I again asked [REDACTED] how I could help him. I assured him I meant no disrespect. [REDACTED] stood silently and stared at me.

I could see that [REDACTED] was growing frustrated. He walked forward and approached me in very close proximity. I told him to step back out of my face. [REDACTED] told me that if I took three steps back he would continue to talk to me, so I did and then Ofc. Davis took over the conversation.

[REDACTED] informed Ofc. Davis that he had been diagnosed with depression, bipolar, and skizophrenia. He further stated that he had been prescribed medication but could not remember when he last took them. Officers offered to take [REDACTED] to the hospital. Then [REDACTED] tried to walk inside the house again and stated that he was going to lock the door. Officers did not allow this for the safety of [REDACTED]'s mother. Officers were afraid she would not be able to defend herself against [REDACTED] if a confrontation occurred.

Ofc. Davis continued to speak with [REDACTED] and I tried to contact the caller for myself but was unsuccessful.

I got a phone call from the beat Officer (Ofc. Fremgen #1003) who asked if he could assist us. Ofc. Fremgen began to respond to the scene.

Then [REDACTED] informed officers that he was going to go into his house and stab himself in his bedroom tonight.

Then [REDACTED] told officers that he could curl 825 pounds.

[REDACTED] then told officers that they needed to blow their brains out in front of God tonight.

At this point I was concerned for [REDACTED]'s elderly mother and knew that we could not leave without checking on her welfare.

Ofc. Davis and I wanted to get into the house but did not want to escalate the situation. Ofc. Davis gave [REDACTED] a lawful order to stay out of the house, but [REDACTED] did not want us to check on his mother.

Ofc. Davis continued to talk to [REDACTED] and eventually we were able to get into the house because [REDACTED] believed our patrol Sergeant (Sgt. Porter) was standing behind him and wanted us to go inside to see him curl 825 pounds.

We all went inside and almost immediately [REDACTED] wanted us out of his house. Ofc. Davis explained that we could not leave. [REDACTED] informed officers that he had knives in his house.

Ofc. Fremgen arrived on scene. Ofc Fremgen spoke with [REDACTED] in length about his command voices, the need to contact his mother, his previous ownership of firearms and when they were confiscated. [REDACTED] also told Ofc. Fremgen that he had a regular doctor.

Ofc. Davis was able to contact [REDACTED]'s mother and see that she was safe.

[REDACTED] randomly began to stare at me again and started to take a ring off of his finger. I could see that [REDACTED] was getting angry again. I asked about the ring and told [REDACTED] to keep it on. [REDACTED] told me that he was taking the ring off so that he could leave the Catholic church and bring in nuns and kill for the father. Then [REDACTED] stared at me and I tried to ask clarifying questions as to what he meant.

[REDACTED] was not responding to questions any longer. Officers together decided that [REDACTED] needed to be placed on a 5150 hold for danger to self and others after the several comments he made and the present ability he had to harm himself or his mother if police left the residence.

At this point [REDACTED] was sitting on the couch in the living room. Ofc. Fremgen began to grab [REDACTED]'s hand first and I grabbed the other arm to place [REDACTED] into handcuffs.

[REDACTED] resisted officers, so we cleared a space on the carpet and gently placed [REDACTED] on the ground on his stomach. [REDACTED] was a very strong male and was able to pull his arms under his chest.

Ofc. Fremgen and myself each grabbed an arm (I had the right arm). Ofc. Fremgen stated that [REDACTED] was trying to bite him. Officers stayed calm and told [REDACTED] they were there to help him. We asked for him to place his hands behind his back. [REDACTED] would not obey commands and Ofc. Davis applied a pressure point to gain compliance as Ofc. Fremgen and I tried to cuff [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] continued to resist and would not give officers his hands. He locked his two hands together holding opposing wrist so tight that he made himself bleed. Officers continued to struggle with [REDACTED] and when I pulled to get his arm out from under his chest I heard a snap and felt his arm give.

I immediately released his arm and thought his elbow had dislocated. Ofc. Davis requested the fire department code three. [REDACTED] did not want the fire department and refused medical aid (ice). [REDACTED] was breathing and talking, so Officers could do nothing but wait for the fire department to respond.

[REDACTED]'s mother entered the room and reassured her son that we were here to Engine and Medic 8 arrived on scene. [REDACTED]'s arm was placed in a splint and he was transported to UCD.

Ofc. Davis road in the ambulance and I followed behind in the patrol vehicle.

Once at UCD Ofc. Davis placed [REDACTED] on a 5150 hold.

Medial staff at UCD new [REDACTED] well from a prior incident with a spit mask and a struggle to get him restrained. Medical staff confimed our decision to bring [REDACTED] to the hospital was correct. Medical staff advised that [REDACTED]'s arm was likly broken but would need X-rays to confirm.

Sgt. Porter arrived on scene and was advised of the incident.

CSI responded to the scene and the hospital to take photographs.

Officers cleared the scene.

On Thursday 2/28/19 at approx. 0411 hours, my partner Ofc. Eckert #1001 and I (Ofc. Davis 941) were dispatched to [REDACTED] L St in regards to a male asian adult ([REDACTED]) who was knocking on his neighbors door. Notes on the call indicated the neighbors were scared of him. We arrived on scene at approx. 0419 hours and observed the following in summary (recorded on body worn camera):

Upon arrival to the area, we located [REDACTED] who was walking out of his house [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] had a TV dinner in his hands. Upon contact, [REDACTED] stated he was our "higher authority" and that if we did not respect him, it meant "death".

[REDACTED] stated he was going over to his neighbors house to cook his TV dinner because his microwave was broken. He informed us that he lives at the house with his mom but she could not help him because she was 92 years old.

While speaking with [REDACTED], he stated he has been diagnosed with "Bipolar, Maniac Depressive, Paranoia and all the stuff". He stated he has been prescribed medication for his illnesses but does not know when he last took them.

At one point, [REDACTED] stated that he wanted to go into his room and stab himself. He also stated that he wanted police to blow their brains out in front of God.

During our conversations, [REDACTED] would continually pause and look into a different direction and state that he was talking to someone else (Sgt. Porter, his ex-girlfriend, and other people). [REDACTED] had a commanding voice telling him what to do. His commanding voice told him to tell us that we needed to hurt ourselves.

[REDACTED] started to take a ring off of his finger and that doing so would release the Nuns and he would start killing. Ofc. Eckert and I were afraid that if we left [REDACTED] as he was he would hurt himself or someone else. Due to this we informed [REDACTED] that he was being placed on a 5150 W&I hold. [REDACTED] refused to give officers his hands nor stand up off of the couch.

We placed [REDACTED] on the floor from his couch and attempted to place him in handcuffs to transport him to the hospital. While on the ground, [REDACTED] refused to comply and held his hands together underneath him while officers attempted to place them behind his back. As officers were struggling with [REDACTED], Ofc. Fremgen stated that [REDACTED] was trying to bite him.

When Ofc. Fremgen stated this, I used departmentally approved pressure points to gain compliance through pain. I placed pressure on the small gap behind his left ear. This did not gain compliance. During this, Ofc. Eckert was still attempting to get [REDACTED] arm out from underneath him. While struggling with [REDACTED], we all heard a loud snap that came from [REDACTED]'s right arm. We believed that his arm may have been broken.

I requested Fire code 3 for the injury to [REDACTED] arm.

I requested CSI to photograph the scene and [REDACTED]'s injuries.

I rode with Fire while they transported [REDACTED] to UC Davis Medical Center for treatment of his arm and to be place on a 5150 W&I hold.

I advised LSM6 Sgt. Porter of the incident.

On Thursday 02/28/2019 at approx 04:32 hrs. SPD officers responded to a call for service at [REDACTED] L. St. Neighbors reported that resident [REDACTED] was knocking on doors and requesting that they heat up a TV dinner. Officers conducted a mental health evaluation and determined that [REDACTED] met criteria for a 5150 W&I hold due to his erratic/aggressive behavior and multiple comments about killing people.

While being detained, [REDACTED] actively resisted officers and sustained a broken arm. He was ultimately transported to UC Davis Medical Center on a 5150 W&I hold.

When contacted at UC Davis by the Mobile Crisis Support Team (MCST), [REDACTED] remained hostile towards the MCST officers. [REDACTED] expressed to the MCST clinician that he intended to get even with the officers, but did not know their names. It was unclear if he meant that he intended to get even with the officers involved in this incident or with officers in general.

[REDACTED] has a history of mental illness, but has been resistant to treatment. It is unclear at this time how long he will remain on the 5150 W&I hold.
