

SACRAMENTO POLICE DEPARTMENT
EVIDENCE & PROPERTY BOOKING RECEIPT AND NOTICE OF RIGHTS

Safekeeping/Personal Property - CA Civil Code 2080.10

You have 60 days from the date of this notice to claim your property. Failure to claim the articles within 60 days will result in the disposal of the property. If you are unable to retrieve your property, you must notify the Sacramento Police Department Evidence & Property Section in writing to hold the property and name an authorized person to retrieve the property.

Found Property- CA Civil Code 2080

Found property will be held for 90 days. If at the end of the 90 days the property is not claimed or returned to the rightful owner, the finder may claim the property by calling the Sacramento Police Department Evidence & Property Section.

Evidence

Evidence items, except firearms, must be claimed within 30 days of the conclusion of your case.

Firearms – W&I Code 8102, W&I Code 5150 and CA Penal Code 18250:

(Mental Health and Domestic Violence Incidents)

A report of the confiscation of these items will be given to the City Attorney's Office if it is believed that the return of the firearm(s) would likely result in harm to you or others. In that case, the City Attorney's Office may file a petition in Superior Court. A notice of your right to a hearing and a copy of the petition will be mailed to you at the address you provided to the police.

Return of Firearm – CA Penal Code 33850-33875 & 34000:

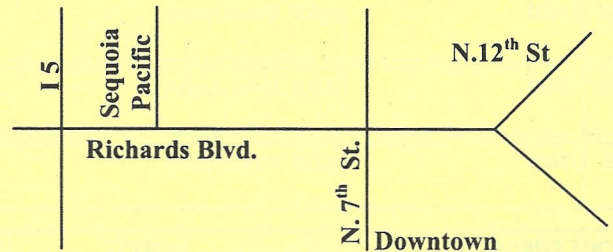

In order to claim your firearm, you must apply to the California Department of Justice (DOJ) for a background check. An application form is available at www.ag.ca.gov/firearms. You can contact DOJ at 916-227-7527 for a form or if you have any questions. It may take up to 30 days or longer to process your application. Write the report number and the police address on your application to DOJ. Your weapon is being held by the Sacramento Police Department Evidence & Property Section, 555 Sequoia Pacific Boulevard, Sacramento, CA, 95811.

Do not submit an application to DOJ until notified your firearm is ready for release.
