Great Dickens Christmas Fair
Saturday, December 9, 2023 - $97  CLOSED

Enter the world of Charles Dickens’ Victorian London on a magical Christmas Eve and discover the heart of the holidays! Resounding laughter, mirth and merriment abound. You are invited to join the dance, mingle with over 750 joyous performers, and revel in hearty food and drink! A Bay area tradition since 1970! Come wander the lanes of Victorian London, as the glow of twilight settles on the city with the scent of pine boughs, freshly baked scones, and the sound of carolers and holiday merrymakers accompanying your stroll. The bustling streets of London, immortalized for all time by the mighty pen of Charles Dickens, form the living backdrop of your excursions in Christmas Past. Entertainment is presented all around you on six stages. Music, dance, and food fill the streets. Discover the characters of Dickens London such as Marley, Scrooge, Tiny Tim and Oliver to name just a few. Don’t miss out on this fascinating trip to Victorian London! (The fair is located indoors at the Cow Palace in south San Francisco. Lunch is on your own at the incredible food court at the Fair.)

New Trips for 2024

Fashion in SF (2024)
Saturday, February 10, 2024 - $100

Visit the de Young Museum in San Francisco and be dazzled by the first major presentation of their costume collection in over 35 years. It showcases designs from French couturiers, Japanese avant-garde designers, and other pillars of the fashion industry, including Christian Dior, Alexander McQueen, Christopher John Rogers, Comme des Garçons, and Rodarte. The designs on display reflect San Francisco’s long-standing tradition of self-expression through fashion. From bohemian style to elegant evening wear, this collection spans more than a century of high fashion and haute couture. Headphones are included in this special exhibition. Come enjoy the many other exhibits of the de Young Museum at your leisure. Lunch will be on your own at the Museum.

Discover the Earth’s Wonders at the Academy of Science! The Steinhart Aquarium is celebrating its 100-year anniversary. It is the home to Claude, the beloved Albino Alligator and Methuselah, the only living prehistoric fish in existence today! Come see the Coral reef - a 25-foot-deep display of eels, anemones, starfish, giant clams, and stingrays. Enjoy the Morrison Planetarium with its 75-foot screen imitating the tilt of the earth to immerse you in the story of the universe. Sit back and enjoy an incredible view of the planets or the seas. The Osher Rainforest, a 90-foot-tall rainforest that explodes with 1600 live plants and animals that call forests home. The Kimball Natural History Museum has African Penguins, giant natural California redwoods, marine mammals, fog, earthquake along with gems, giant T. Rex and Blue whale skeletons. So much to see and it is all under one roof! Admission and ticket to the planetarium is included. Lunch is on your own.

Empire State Historic Park (2024)
Thursday, May 16, 2024 - $88
Take a trip back in time to the late 1800s as you visit the Empire Mine State Historical Park in Grass Valley. It's one of the largest, richest and longest operating gold mines in California. The Garden tour is only available in spring, so enjoy a stroll through the roses and smell spring in the air. The Cottage was the 1890s country estate home of William Bourn, Jr. It included a greenhouse, gardens, fountains and a reflecting pool. (The interior of the home can only be visited on a docent tour.) The park's museum contains a scale model of the underground workings of the Empire/Star mine complex. After lunch, enjoy free time to tour the museum and mine yard on your own. Lunch is a traditional pastie, the Cornish lunch of Miners from Cornwall, England. (Make your choice when registering- Beef, Chicken, Vegetable. Pasties are a sandwich type of pot pie.)
