Tahoe City's Shoreline Cruise

Please note: Trip date has changed. Originally scheduled for June, the trip is now set for Saturday, July 26.

Saturday, July 26 - $157

Set Sail on a Scenic Summer Adventure! Ready for breathtaking views and a glimpse into history? Join us for a picturesque morning cruise along the stunning West Shore of Lake Tahoe! Experience the beauty of one of California's most iconic lakes as you pass by luxurious lakeside estates, including the famous Kaiser Estate – the backdrop of The Godfather III! As you relax aboard, enjoy live narration from the captain, sharing fascinating stories about Tahoe's rich history and early tourism. After the cruise, you'll have free time to explore and enjoy lunch on your own in the charming downtown Tahoe City. Wander through local shops, galleries, and boutiques, and take in the unique lakeside charm at your own pace. Enjoy taking pictures with some of the wooden sculptures, like "Penny Bear" and Tahoe City's "Big Tree". Don't miss this unforgettable day on Lake Tahoe! Register today to reserve your spot!

A Day By Monterey Bay Includes a Ticket to the Monterey Aquarium!

Note: This is a full-day trip and the bus will arrive back in Sacramento around 9pm

Saturday, August 2 - $199

Escape the heat and discover the beauty of the Monterey coastline, where refreshing ocean breezes and stunning views await. Stroll through the historic Cannery Row, a lively district filled with unique restaurants, specialty shops, and inviting spots to dip your toes in the water. Named after John Steinbeck's 1945 novel Cannery Row, this once bustling sardine fishing hub is now one of the top attractions in Monterey County. Explore the renowned Monterey Aquarium, one of the largest in the world, and experience the wonders of the ocean. Marvel at the three-story Kelp Forest, vibrant fish displays, and the mesmerizing Open Sea exhibit, where schools of sardines and tuna swim in swirling patterns. Don't miss the Aviary, home to local shorebirds from the area's sand dunes and marshes. Register today to reserve your spot!

Filoli Gardens

Trolls: Save the Humans

Saturday, August 23 - $136

Experience the magic of Filoli's historic estate and gardens while exploring TROLLS: Save the Humans, a captivating exhibition featuring six larger-than-life Troll sculptures by Thomas Dambo. Made from reclaimed materials, these folklore-inspired trolls aim to inspire sustainability, recycling, and a deeper connection with nature. Filoli, a 654-acre estate with a 36,000-square-foot Georgian mansion and 16-acre English garden, offers a stunning backdrop for this one-of-a-kind outdoor exhibit. In July, more than 500 rose bushes in 150 varieties come into bloom, adding vibrant color to the landscape. Take a self-guided tour to uncover hidden gems in the house and garden, and enjoy lunch on your own at the Café or bring your own to relax in the picnic area. This family-friendly adventure combines art, history, and nature for a truly unforgettable experience! Register today to reserve your spot.
